

Setting Life Priorities in Medicine

Difficult, often apparently competing demands:

Professional: Practice, patient care, study, administration, finances, credentials.

Family: marriage, children, home upkeep, parents, siblings, extended family

Personal: recreation, exercise, fitness, health and wellness, nutrition, friendships, hobbies

Spiritual: faith disciplines, prayer, congregational activity, community service